

MARCO LUCA VULCANO

Marco Luca Vulcano is a professional stuntman, fight coordinator, and actor, with a robust background in martial arts and performing arts. Born on July 30, 1997, in Rome, he is a versatile artist combining technical precision and creative interpretation in stage and screen combat.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Since 2020, Marco has been an integral member of the Lodart Academy and Accademia Romana d'Armi, where he specializes in armed and unarmed combat techniques, acrobatics, and stage combat. His work extends to social media content creation, performance coordination, and teaching stage combat techniques.

In cinema and television, Marco has contributed as a stunt performer and coordinator for several high-profile productions, such as "Suburra Eterna" (2022), "Gormiti New Era" (2023), "Domina" (Seasons 1 and 2), Mafia Mamma (2022), and "Gomorra 5" (2021). Notable among his collaborations are his roles as a motion capture artist and stunt double in Gormiti New Era, showcasing his adaptability across different forms of visual storytelling.

His acting credits include the short films "Fake Shot" (2022), "Shake" (2022), and "Gli Immortali" (2022). As a fight coordinator and actor, he also contributed to the short Cinquantadue (2022).

In live events, Marco performed as an official stuntman at the national premieres of "The Fall Guy" (2024) and "The Musketeers" (2023).

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Marco holds a Bachelor's Degree in Acting (110/110) from the Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia (2020–2022), one of the most prestigious cinema academies in Italy. He also pursued extensive training in historical fencing and stage combat at the Accademia Romana d'Armi, earning certifications such as Second-Level FIS Technician in Historical Fencing (2023) and Led Saber Fencing Instructor (2023).

ATHLETIC ACHIEVEMENTS

A skilled historical fencing athlete, Marco has competed successfully in several tournaments. Notable achievements include:

- First Place in the AFO Tournament of Defence of 2024(Rapier)
- First Place in the AFO Tournament of Defence of 2024(Saber)
- Second Place in the FIS National Championship of 2024 (Rapier)

LODART

SWORDFIGHTING

